

Leave the Indiana NO CALL act alone. If you can not write and pass a law that is at least as restrictive as what we have we do not want a Federal law that allows the calls to begin again. It is wonderful having quiet dinners with no calls from these types of people. I also find that my father in law is no longer complaining of calls that bothered him. Pattern your law after Indiana's and we could support it.